

aplegate is a 5-piece improvised psychedelic rock band from Central Vic. Drawing inspiration from psych rock, jazz and the jam band scene, live performances manifest as a continual fluid set. Comfortably at home in a bush doof, or, on a big stage, aplegate specialise in live improvisation, feeding from the energy of the crowd, interwoven with songs and arrangements that are melodic and moving.

Declan Kennedy - keys

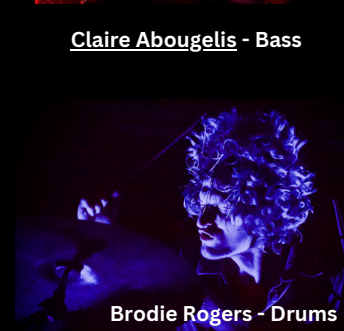

Jack Telford - Guitar

Spike Carter-South - guitar

Claire Abougelis - Bass

Brodie Rogers - Drums

They are now one of the country's best original bands – consistently inventive and adventurous. All members are highly accomplished performers, and every show is a testament to their hard work and talent.

Doug Falconer – Hunters and Collectors and Shedshaker Brewing

Aplegate's live show is genuinely spectacular, their ability to combine jazz chops with the realm of psychedelic music makes the performance a real juggernaut that leaves you with no idea where it'll go next.

Chris Windley – Shotkickers

Aplegate are an exceptional new band showcasing among the most creative songwriters, players and co-creator/improvisers in Australian music today. I walked away from a recent live performance hearing myself say "That's some of the best music I've heard in my life".

Carl Pannuzzo – Checkerboard Lounge.
